647. 22nd March, 1856.

SIR,

IT having been determined that the Cash responsibility connected with the payment of the expenses incidental to the making up, and altering Clothing, and for the repair of Saddlery, hitherto invested in Quartermasters, should in future devolve upon Paymasters of Regiments and Depôts, the duties of the Quartermasters being confined to the management of the Clothing transactions, I am directed to acquaint you that the Quarterly Clothing Account is to be rendered through you to the Director General of Clothing, with a memorandum attached, notifying that you have a knowledge of its financial bearings with reference to your own accountability for the advances made by this Department to the Regimental Agents, to enable them to meet your drafts for this Service.

I am to add, that such Advances will be authorized upon Estimates of the Amount (excluding shillings and pence), expected to come in course of payment in each Quarter, commencing with the Quarter ending the 30th June next, accompanied by abstracts thereof for the use of the Agents, to be prepared on the Forms herewith, which documents are to be forwarded to the Director General of Clothing, care being taken not to draw for any portion of the amount, until three or four days have elapsed, so as to admit of correspondence should any be required upon the subject of the advance demanded. This service must be carefully excluded from your ordinary Monthly and Supplementary Estimates, and the Bills are to be invariably distinguished as drawn upon the Clothing Estimate.

Upon the Contingent Account for each quarter being examined in the War Department, a notification of the amount allowed thereon will be made to the Commanding Officer, authorizing a Charge on your Pay List on account of the same, vouched by the said notification.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

To Paymasters and Acting Paymasters of Regiments and Depôts at home. B. HAWES.

War Department, Horse Guards, 26th March, 1856.

SIR,—The correct preparation of the accounts of the Depôt Battalions in regard to charges for men deprived of pay by order of the Commanding Officer for being absent without leave, or who have been imprisoned under his authority, by sentence of Court Martial, or by the Civil Power, being of great importance, and it being moreover highly desirable that the course of proceeding on the part of both Commanding Officer and Paymaster should be uniform, and in conformity with the regulations, I am directed to request your particular attention to the Articles of the War Office Explanatory Directions of 1848, quoted in the margin,* and to observe that the Battalion under your command should be mustered every month by the Paymaster from a roll prepared by the Adjutant, which roll should be afterwards kept complete by the Paymaster, who is responsible that all remarks therein from time to time entered against the men's names, and which affect the charges on account of their pay, should be carefully transcribed into his Quarterly Pay List, for the attainment of which important object every facility should be afforded.

I am accordingly to request, that you will give the necessary directions on the subject, and that you will satisfy yourself that the muster roll of the Battalion is invariably prepared by the Adjutant and kept complete by the Paymaster in all the required particulars, both Officers being held responsible that the information contained in that important document is fully and correctly stated.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

Duties of District Inspectors.

26. District Inspectors are responsible that the system of instruction, as taught at the School of Musketry, and which has been approved of for the Army, is rigidly adhered to, and efficiently carried out in the several battalions and depôts by the Instructors under their supervision. They will bring to the notice of the Inspector General of Instruction any deviation from the established system, or laxity in the practice, which they may discover in their periodical visits; on which occasions they will carefully and minutely examine the registers of the practices, and ascertain if the several companies' practice returns agree therewith; they will also take opportunities of seeing the men when employed at their several practices, that they may thereby judge if the preliminary drills have been carefully proceeded with, as the results which are capable of being produced chiefly depend on the pains taken in exercising the men therein.

Returns.

27. All the prescribed Regimental Returns of Target Practice, &c. (which are to be made out by the Serjeant Instructors, and not in the Orderly Room), after being signed by the Officer Instructor and countersigned by the Commanding Officer, are to be sent through the District Inspectors to the Inspector-General of Instruction, as directed in the Instruction of Musketry.

28. The District Inspectors, before forwarding the several returns, will ascertain if they are correct, and make any remarks thereon they may consider necessary, accompanying their monthly reports, transmitting the monthly progress returns of battalions and depôts, with a statement showing the battalions and depôts they have visited during the period embraced in their reports, as also the number of men they found under instruction, and the nature of instruction in which the men were employed.

29. The Inspector-General of Instruction will report quarterly to the Adjutant-General for the information of the Commander-in-Chief on the progress of rifle instruction among the troops, as also furnish annually, on the receipt of the Battalion and Depôt Annual Target and Judging Distance Practice Returns, an abstract showing the efficiency of every battalion in those practices, together with a report thereon.

30. The Inspector-General of Instruction, being held responsible for the efficiency of the troops in the use of their arms, will bring under the notice of the Commander-in-Chief everything he may observe acting prejudicially to that efficiency, as also any laxity he may discover on the part of those responsible for, and entrusted with, the important duty of training the troops to the use of their arms.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

CAPTAIN CHARLES JOHN HENRY (late of Straffan), Cheltenham.
REV. W. DOUGLAS VEITCH, M.A., Devonshire Terrace Hyde, Park.
JOHN ALEXANDER WATT, Esq., Barnes.

It has been represented to this Company, that a young Officer is often under the necessity of declining his promotion by purchase for want of the sum, which, by Her Majesty's regulations, should be forthcoming to secure it.

This Company have, therefore, adopted the following plan for amassing it by degrees, and guaranteeing its payment, whenever it may be required, to those who are prudent enough to subscribe by half-yearly payments a certain sum, for the purpose of placing their purchase-money beyond a doubt.

The PHŒNIX LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY only propose to assist young Officers to purchase their Lieutenancy, Troop or Company.

They calculate that an Ensign or Cornet will obtain his Lieutenancy in three years. He (the future purchaser) would therefore have to pay to the Company half-yearly in advance for three years a certain sum, and at the end of that period the amount of £250 or £350 (according to his branch of the Service) would be at his disposal to purchase the step of Lieutenant. These half-yearly payments would amount to £40 : 15*s.* 10*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Infantry; £57 : 2*s.* 2*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Cavalry.

This, of course, would be nothing more than keeping the money at interest for the young Officer; but the advantage proposed is this. Supposing the step happens to offer itself at any period after thirteen months shall have expired, this Company are bound to pay the money at once, the Officer giving security that the remainder of his Six Half-yearly payments shall be duly made as originally agreed upon, at the same time assuring his Life for the amount, which he can drop if he pleases when the money is paid off. Should the Officer, however, quit the service or die before his turn for purchase arrives, the full amounts he has paid in will be instantly returned to him or to his heirs.

A young Subaltern may assure the purchase-money of his Troop or Company in the same way. The period calculated upon for this promotion is seven years; but the money would be advanced by the Company at any period after three years' payments; the condition and terms being precisely the same as those laid down in the case of a Lieutenancy; the rate being £131 : 7*s.* 2*d.* half-yearly for a Troop of Cavalry; £70 : 19*s.* for a Company of Infantry.

More ample details will be given on application (personal or in writing) to the Chief Office, No. 1, Leadenhall Street, London.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

PETER MORRISON, Managing Director.

WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c.

82,012
1,692.

THE Lords and others Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, having, at the suggestion and recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, made arrangements for the supply of Artificial Arms (constructed upon an improved principle) and of Artificial Legs (in imitation of the natural leg, both as to form and motion) to those Commissioned Officers who have been wounded in the Service, whose means may not enable them to provide themselves with more expensive contrivances,—it is hereby notified, that such Officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this benefit, and whose cases may come within the above regulation, should address their applications upon the subject to the Secretary of Chelsea Hospital. It is, however, to be clearly understood, that as this is intended to be a boon to Officers of the above description, no pecuniary allowance in lieu can be granted to Officers who may prefer providing themselves with other substitutes for limbs.

Arms, 8
No. 1907.

CIRCULAR.—MEMORANDUM.

General Number, 176
A. 41.

Reports—Ireland.
Horse Guards, 17th April, 1856.

THE Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief desires that, on the transfer of Soldiers from one Company to another in the same Regiment, their Arms and Accoutrements may be transferred with them,—and that on all future occasions of fresh issues, they may be marked consecutively from 1 to 1000 or 1,200, according to the establishment.

CARE must be taken, on the transfer of a soldier to a new Company, that his firelock is in perfect order, or that the estimated cost of its repair is at the same time handed over by the Officer commanding the Company from which he may have been removed.

By command,
G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

GENERAL ORDER. No. 666.

Horse Guards, 21st April, 1856.

THE Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief has received the Queen's commands to express her unqualified praise of the soldierlike appearance of the Troops of the Line and Militia at Aldershot, when reviewed by Her Majesty on the 19th instant.

The Queen admires the spirit of the Militia, and appreciates the zeal of its Officers, by whose exertions that Force has attained so high a state of drill and discipline,—as manifested by the steady and correct performance of extensive manœuvres on difficult ground,—proving the great attention which has been paid to its instruction,—the successful issue of which could scarcely be expected from Troops so recently brought together in camp, and which surpassed the sanguine expectations of Her Majesty.

By command of the Right Honorable
FIELD MARSHAL VISCOUNT HARDINGE,
Commanding-in-Chief,

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

B.—56. Instructions of Musketry, 5

SIR, Horse Guards, 3rd May, 1856.

THE great and praiseworthy interest which Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and privates, have taken in rifle practice, and which has already produced a proficiency in firing hitherto unknown, has induced the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, with the sanction of the Secretary of State for War, to authorize Commanding Officers of Regiments to make requisition, through the Adjutant-General of the Forces, for extra practice ammunition, at the rate of six rounds per man per annum, for the purpose of promoting emulation between individuals, Companies, and Regiments, by shooting matches for prizes granted by the Officers, or made up by the Soldiers.

The fruit of their voluntary practice may be the gain of those prizes, or badges of distinction, which it is proposed, by regulation, to bestow upon the best shots.

Armed with the most perfect weapon ever yet placed in the hands of Troops, Soldiers will soon, by the measure recommended, acquire confidence in their arms and skill in using them, and their efficiency thereby be increased.

Commanding Officers will cause all matches to be fired at the appointed place of practice, and make such regulations for carrying them on, as shall ensure good order and regularity of procedure.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Circular to Officers commanding Reigments and Stations, &c. Your obedient humble servant,

G. A. WETHERALL,

Adjutant-General.

CIRCULAR, No. 1228.

SIR, War Department, Horse Guards, 17th May, 1856.

I am directed by the Secretary of State to acquaint you that, instead of the long Sea route between London or Gravesend, and the Irish Ports, the routes via Bristol and Liverpool, to or from Cork and Dublin respectively, should invariably be used for Recruits and Escorts, and small Detachments, also discharged soldiers and their families, proceeding to or from the centre and south of Ireland at the public expense.

I am to add that the Sea passage between the Thames and Portsmouth has also been discontinued, but that the contracts for conveyance by Sea between the ports specified below,* and between one port and another in the British Channel, remain undisturbed.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
B. HAWES.

To Officers commanding Regiments, Depôts, Depôt Battalions, Consolidated Cavalry Depôts, Inspecting Field Officers of Recruiting Districts, &c., and all Paymasters at Home.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

LORD ASHLEY—LORD FRANCIS CONYNGHAM—GERARD HOARE, Esq.

Directors.

HENRY R. ADDISON, Esq. (MANAGING DIRECTOR), 3, Argyle Square.
CAPTAIN ARMSTRONG, Sandfield House, Guildford.
EDWARD COOKE BOURNE, Esq., Regent Street.
MAURICE EVANS, Esq., 29, Great St. Helen's.

RICHARD H. GOOLDEN, Esq., M.D., 41, Sussex Gardens, Hyde Park.
REV. H. P. HAUGHTON, M.A., St. James's Parsonage, Victoria Park.
CAPTAIN CHARLES JOHN HENRY (late of Straffan), Cheltenham.
REV. W. DOUGLAS VEITCH, M.A., Devonshire Terrace Hyde, Park.
JOHN ALEXANDER WATT, Esq., Barnes.

It has been represented to this Company, that a young Officer is often under the necessity of declining his promotion by purchase for want of the sum, which, by Her Majesty's regulations, should be forthcoming to secure it.

This Company have, therefore, adopted the following plan for amassing it by degrees, and guaranteeing its payment, whenever it may be required, to those who are prudent enough to subscribe by half-yearly payments a certain sum, for the purpose of placing their purchase-money beyond a doubt.

The PHŒNIX LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY only propose to assist young Officers to purchase their Lieutenancy, Troop or Company.

They calculate that an Ensign or Cornet will obtain his Lieutenancy in three years. He (the future purchaser) would therefore have to pay to the Company half-yearly in advance for three years a certain sum, and at the end of that period the amount of £250 or £350 (according to his branch of the Service) would be at his disposal to purchase the step of Lieutenant. These half-yearly payments would amount to £40 : 15*s.* 10*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Infantry; £57 : 2*s.* 2*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Cavalry.

This, of course, would be nothing more than keeping the money at interest for the young Officer; but the advantage proposed is this. Supposing the step happens to offer itself at any period after thirteen months shall have expired, this Company are bound to pay the money at once, the Officer giving security that the remainder of his Six Half-yearly payments shall be duly made as originally agreed upon, at the same time assuring his Life for the amount, which he can drop if he pleases when the money is paid off. Should the Officer, however, quit the service or die before his turn for purchase arrives, the full amounts he has paid in will be instantly returned to him or to his heirs.

A young Subaltern may assure the purchase-money of his Troop or Company in the same way. The period calculated upon for this promotion is seven years; but the money would be advanced by the Company at any period after three years' payments; the condition and terms being precisely the same as those laid down in the case of a Lieutenancy; the rate being £131 : 7*s.* 2*d.* half-yearly for a Troop of Cavalry; £70 : 19*s.* for a Company of Infantry.

More ample details will be given on application (personal or in writing) to the Chief Office, No. 1, Leadenhall Street, London.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

No. 3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK £500,000.

THIS Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

CIRCULAR. No. 1226.

SIR, War Department, Horse Guards, 12th April, 1856

IT being desirable to fix the remuneration to be allowed to the Clerks in Regiments on Service in the East, who make out the Monthly Savings Bank Remittance Returns, and who are required to keep, for the information of their Commanding Officers, a corrected List of the Savings Bank Balances due to the several Depositors, irrespective of Interest, and it being necessary that the Savings Bank Remittance Returns alluded to should be rendered in duplicate to this Department as soon as practicable after the termination of each month; and further, that all Savings Bank Credits and Debits in the Regimental Pay Lists should be vouched by corresponding statements of particulars, I am directed by the Secretary of State to acquaint you, that the Clerk whom you appoint to perform these duties in the Regiment under your command, may be paid 2*s.* 6*d.* for each month in which the number of Savings Bank Remittances is less than thirty, and 1*d.* for each remittance in those months in which the number of remittances equals or exceeds thirty.

For instance, supposing that twenty Soldiers make Savings Bank Remittances this month, and fifty next month, the Clerk would be entitled to 2*s.* 6*d.* for the present month, and 4*s.* 2*d.* for the succeeding month. It is, however, clearly to be understood, that for any month in which there may be no Savings Bank Remittances no allowance will be made to the Clerk.

I am to add, that the necessary charges will be admitted in the Regimental Pay Lists according to the number of Savings Bank Remittances shown by the vouchers to have taken place in each month.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
B. HAWES.

To Officers commanding
Regiments in the East.

Horse Guards, 21st May, 1856.

A REVISED Scale of Allowances to Serjeant Armourers for marking Small Arms, Implements, &c. having been approved by the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, is herewith published for general information and guidance, and is to be substituted for that inserted in the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, Article 14, page 94.

In forwarding to the War Department, Pall Mall, the bills from the Serjeant Armourer, Commanding Officers are to certify the number of Arms, &c. that have been marked, the date when they were received, and the Store Depôt from which they were issued.

As these revised Allowances confer a considerable benefit upon the Serjeant Armourers, Commanding Officers will pay especial attention to the spirit of the Circular Memorandum, dated Horse Guards, 21st August, 1854, which directs them to withhold their sanction from applications from Serjeant Armourers for payment on account of defects in the Arms of their Regiments, which can be remedied without actual expense, and by the application of such an amount of time and labour as may be reasonably expected to be given by them as part of their ordinary duty.

Commanding Officers are, moreover, cautioned against the practice of Militia. Miscellaneous.

GENERAL ORDER. No. 669.

Horse Guards, 9th June, 1856.

THE Militia Forces having been directed to be disembodied, the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, previously to their return to their counties, desires to offer to the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men his best acknowledgments for the zeal and discipline which they have shown during the whole period of their service. They have not only performed every duty which fell to their share with the cheerful obedience of good Soldiers, but they have in large numbers gallantly volunteered into the Line, at the most critical period of the War, and, by thus reinforcing the British Army before Sebastopol, have essentially contributed to its success.

Several Militia Regiments volunteered their services for the garrisons of the Mediterranean.

The offers of 10 Regiments were accepted, thereby liberating an equal number of Regiments of the Line to proceed to the Crimea.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to mark Her sense of these valuable services, by signifying Her Commands, through the Secretary of State for War, that the following Militia Regiments, which volunteered their services abroad, be permitted to bear the word "Mediterranean" on their Colors, viz.:—

Royal Berkshire.	Northampton.
East Kent.	Oxford.
1st Royal Lancashire.	1st King's Own, Stafford.
3rd Royal Lancashire.	Royal Wiltshire.
3rd Royal Westminster, Middlesex.	2nd West York.

The Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief congratulates these Regiments on the distinction thus accorded to them by her Majesty.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1856.

THE Lords and others Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, having, at the suggestion and recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, made arrangements for the supply of Artificial Arms (constructed upon an improved principle) and of Artificial Legs (in imitation of the natural leg, both as to form and motion) to those Commissioned Officers who have been wounded in the Service, whose means may not enable them to provide themselves with more expensive contrivances,—it is hereby notified, that such Officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this benefit, and whose cases may come within the above regulation, should address their applications upon the subject to the Secretary of Chelsea Hospital. It is, however, to be clearly understood, that as this is intended to be a boon to Officers of the above description, no pecuniary allowance in lieu can be granted to Officers who may prefer providing themselves with other substitutes for limbs.

N.B. All Communications regarding Deaths, (more particularly of those Field Officers who have retired from the Army, but whose Names are specially allowed to be retained, and of Officers having Local Rank,) Errors or Omissions, which may be discovered in this, or in the ANNUAL Army List (which is also published by AUTHORITY), verified by real Signature, should be addressed to the Editor, under cover to the "Right Honorable THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR WAR," marking the words "Army List," on the corner of the cover.

HENRY R. ADDISON, Esq. (MANAGING DIRECTOR), 3, Argyle Square.
CAPTAIN ARMSTRONG, Sandfield House, Guildford.
EDWARD COOKE BOURNE, Esq., Regent Street.

CAPTAIN CHARLES JOHN HENRY (late of Straffan), Cheltenham.
REV. W. DOUGLAS VEITCH, M.A., Devonshire Terrace Hyde, Park.
JOHN ALEXANDER WATT, Esq., Barnes.

It has been represented to this Company, that a young Officer is often under the necessity of declining his promotion by purchase for want of the sum, which, by Her Majesty's regulations, should be forthcoming to secure it.

This Company have, therefore, adopted the following plan for amassing it by degrees, and guaranteeing its payment, whenever it may be required, to those who are prudent enough to subscribe by half-yearly payments a certain sum, for the purpose of placing their purchase-money beyond a doubt.

The PHŒNIX LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY only propose to assist young Officers to purchase their Lieutenancy, Troop or Company.

They calculate that an Ensign or Cornet will obtain his Lieutenancy in three years. He (the future purchaser) would therefore have to pay to the Company half-yearly in advance for three years a certain sum, and at the end of that period the amount of £250 or £350 (according to his branch of the Service) would be at his disposal to purchase the step of Lieutenant. These half-yearly payments would amount to £40 : 15*s.* 10*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Infantry; £57 : 2*s.* 2*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Cavalry.

This, of course, would be nothing more than keeping the money at interest for the young Officer; but the advantage proposed is this. Supposing the step happens to offer itself at any period after thirteen months shall have expired, this Company are bound to pay the money at once, the Officer giving security that the remainder of his Six Half-yearly payments shall be duly made as originally agreed upon, at the same time assuring his Life for the amount, which he can drop if he pleases when the money is paid off. Should the Officer, however, quit the service or die before his turn for purchase arrives, the full amounts he has paid in will be instantly returned to him or to his heirs.

A young Subaltern may assure the purchase-money of his Troop or Company in the same way. The period calculated upon for this promotion is seven years; but the money would be advanced by the Company at any period after three years' payments; the condition and terms being precisely the same as those laid down in the case of a Lieutenancy; the rate being £131 : 7*s.* 2*d.* half-yearly for a Troop of Cavalry; £70 : 19*s.* for a Company of Infantry.

More ample details will be given on application (personal or in writing) to the Chief Office, No. 1, Leadenhall Street, London.

E. DANIELS,
SECRETARY.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

No. 3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK £500,000.

THIS Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

PETER MORRISON, Managing Director.

CIRCULAR. No. 1231.

91,300
Militia—2

SIR, War Department, Horse Guards, 14th June, 1856.

IT not being considered necessary to maintain in the Militia, after disembodiment, the system of Regimental Savings Banks, I am directed by the Secretary of State to acquaint you, that no deposits will be allowed in any Regimental Savings Bank after the disembodiment of the Regiment, and that all existing depositors, whether belonging to the Permanent Staff or not, are to be required to withdraw their Balances within six months after the date of such disembodiment, and no interest will be allowed after the determination of such period of six months.

I am to add, that, after the disembodiment of any Regiment, the duty of winding up the affairs of the Savings Bank, and the rendering to this Department the necessary Accounts, will devolve upon the Adjutant; his signature to all Savings Bank documents will accordingly be required, and will be considered sufficient; and on the withdrawal of the last balance remaining in the Bank, he is at once to report the circumstance to this Department. He should also fill up the requisite forms, which can be obtained on demand from this Department, and conduct any correspondence which may be necessary for the purpose of transferring to the local and civil Savings Banks of the country the balances of any Depositors who may be desirous of having their money so transferred. Such men should, however, be clearly and distinctly informed, that the transfers are made solely upon their responsibility, and at their own risk.

I have the honor to be, &c.
B. HAWES.

with the rank of Troop Serjeant Major or Colour Serjeant, now allowed after seven years' service to the Orderly Room Clerk, will be granted after three years' uninterrupted service in that rank.

I am to add, that this arrangement will commence from the 1st June, 1856, and that Orderly Room Clerks who shall have served three years and upwards on that date, and are not already in receipt of the increase, may be recommended in the usual manner to receive the same from the above-mentioned date.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
To Officers commanding Regiments. B. HAWES.

CIRCULAR. No. 1232.

General Number 229 — Schools.

Sir, War Department, Whitehall, 26th June, 1856.

The Secretary of State for War having determined to give to Women desirous of becoming Regimental or Garrison Schoolmistresses the benefit of a course at a good Training School, I am directed to request that you will send in the name of any person belonging to your Regiment who is desirous of availing herself of the privilege.

She must not be under eighteen years of age, and must be mistress of reading and writing, the first four rules of arithmetic, of needlework and household industry.

At the Seminary where the Secretary of State proposes to place her she will be carefully instructed in the method of infant teaching; but, as no course of education for herself is intended, she must be an instructed Woman previous to entering the Institution.

You will be careful to select only a Woman of unexceptionable moral character, of religious principles, cleanly in her habits, and possessed of a good temper.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
To Officers commanding Regiments, &c. &c. Your obedient Servant,
G. C. MUNDY.

GENERAL ORDER. No. 672.

Horse Guards, 15th July, 1856.

FIELD MARSHAL VISCOUNT HARDINGE having been compelled by the state of his health to tender to the Queen his resignation of the Command of the Army, which her Majesty has been graciously pleased to accept, desires to record his deep sense of the conduct of the Troops, and the obligations he is under to the General and other Officers for their uniform support whilst he has had the honor and happiness to be at their head.

On assuming the command of the Army, succeeding as he did the greatest Commander which this country has produced, Viscount Hardinge felt the weight of the duty which, by her Majesty's favor, was entrusted to him; but he confidently relied on the zealous exertions of its Officers to maintain it in that high state of discipline and efficiency for which it had ever been distinguished.

A period of War ensued; and it was then seen how fully this confidence was justified:—after a long peace a British Army took the Field, unsurpassed in any of the qualities required of Soldiers. Under a Leader whose loss has been deplored by the Sovereign, the Army and the Country, a series of victories was achieved, which shed an additional lustre on the British Arms.

The instructions for the conduct of the War, and her Majesty's thanks to the Troops during its operations, have been, according to invariable custom, conveyed to the Army in the Field by her Majesty's Secretary of State for War. Her Majesty's sentiments have on all these occasions been expressed with great force and truth; but Lord Hardinge cannot on this occasion deny himself the satisfaction of recording his conviction that at no former period of the military history of this country has the devoted conduct of the Troops been surpassed. Their soldier-like qualities stood the test of a siege, carried on through a rigorous winter and for eleven months of open trenches.

The valour and perseverance of that gallant Army and of its brave Allies was at length rewarded by the capture of the enemy's fortress and the attainment of an honorable peace.

Whilst the Field Marshal records his admiration of the conduct of the Troops who took part in that great achievement, he desires to convey to the Army at large his thanks for their zealous obedience and devotion, and to express the regret with which he separates himself from them. Viscount Hardinge can only add the expression of his sincere gratification, that the command of the Army is, by her Majesty's pleasure, about to be assumed by GENERAL HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., G.C.B., the illustrious Prince whose name is associated with some of the most splendid triumphs of the War just concluded, and whose devotion to the interests of the Service is so well known.

By Command of the Right Honorable
FIELD MARSHAL VISCOUNT HARDINGE,
Commanding-in-Chief;

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General

GENERAL ORDER. No. 673.

Horse Guards, 16th July, 1856.

In obedience to the gracious order of Her Majesty, General His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge assumes the command of the Army which has been confided to him by Her Majesty's favor, on the resignation of Field Marshal Viscount Hardinge.

His Royal Highness feels it no easy task to undertake the responsibilities of so honourable and arduous a post, as the successor of that distinguished General who has found himself compelled to retire from it by the state of his health, and who again was preceded by that illustrious chief whose name will ever continue to be the glory of the British Army and the British Nation; but he has the strongest reliance on the support of the General Officers with whom he will be associated, and on the Army at large;—and in this reliance he enters confidently on the noble trust which now devolves upon him.

His Royal Highness has had the advantage, as a General Officer in command of a Division, under the orders of his lamented and gallant friend the late Field Marshal Lord Raglan, of becoming to some extent personally acquainted with the heroic deeds of the Army in the recent arduous contest, now so fortunately brought to a successful end. He knows of what excellent materials the Troops are composed, both as to Officers and Men. It will be his anxious endeavour to maintain the Army in the high state of efficiency in which it has been left to him by his distinguished predecessor, and he doubts not that the Army itself will be mainly instrumental in enabling him to carry out this most anxious wish of his heart.

By Order of His Royal Highness
THE GENERAL COMMANDING-IN-CHIEF;

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant-General.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

PROMOTION BY PURCHASE.

IMPORTANT AND NOVEL MILITARY FEATURE.

PHŒNIX LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,

1, LEADENHALL STREET, LONDON.

Trustees.

LORD ASHLEY—LORD FRANCIS CONYNGHAM—GERARD HOARE, Esq.

Directors.

HENRY R. ADDISON, Esq. (MANAGING DIRECTOR), 3, Argyle Square.
CAPTAIN ARMSTRONG, Sandfield House, Guildford.
EDWARD COOKE BOURNE, Esq., Regent Street.
MAURICE EVANS, Esq., 29, Great St. Helen's.

RICHARD H. GOOLDEN, Esq., M.D., 41, Sussex Gardens, Hyde Park.
REV. H. P. HAUGHTON, M.A., St. James's Parsonage, Victoria Park.
CAPTAIN CHARLES JOHN HENRY (late of Straffan), Cheltenham.
REV. W. DOUGLAS VEITCH, M.A., Devonshire Terrace Hyde, Park.
JOHN ALEXANDER WATT, Esq., Barnes.

It has been represented to this Company, that a young Officer is often under the necessity of declining his promotion by purchase for want of the sum, which, by Her Majesty's regulations, should be forthcoming to secure it.

This Company have, therefore, adopted the following plan for amassing it by degrees, and guaranteeing its payment, whenever it may be required, to those who are prudent enough to subscribe by half-yearly payments a certain sum, for the purpose of placing their purchase-money beyond a doubt.

The PHŒNIX LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY only propose to assist young Officers to purchase their Lieutenancy, Troop or Company.

They calculate that an Ensign or Cornet will obtain his Lieutenancy in three years. He (the future purchaser) would therefore have to pay to the Company half-yearly in advance for three years a certain sum, and at the end of that period the amount of £250 or £350 (according to his branch of the Service) would be at his disposal to purchase the step of Lieutenant. These half-yearly payments would amount to £40 : 15*s.* 10*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Infantry; £57 : 2*s.* 2*d.* for a Lieutenancy of Cavalry.

This, of course, would be nothing more than keeping the money as interest for the young Officer; but the advantage proposed is this. Supposing the step happens to offer itself at any period after thirteen months shall have expired, this Company are bound to pay the money at once, the Officer giving security that the remainder of his Six Half-yearly payments shall be duly made as originally agreed upon, at the same time assuring his Life for the amount, which he can drop if he pleases when the money is paid off. Should the Officer, however, quit the service or die before his turn for purchase arrives, the full amounts he has paid in will be instantly returned to him or to his heirs.

A young Subaltern may assure the purchase-money of his Troop or Company in the same way. The period calculated upon for this promotion is seven years; but the money would be advanced by the Company at any period after three years' payments; the condition and terms being precisely the same as those laid down in the case of a Lieutenancy; the rate being £131 : 7*s.* 2*d.* half-yearly for a Troop of Cavalry; £70 : 19*s.* for a Company of Infantry.

More ample details will be given on application (personal or in writing) to the Chief Office, No. 1, Leadenhall Street, London.

E. DANIELS,
SECRETARY.

BANK OF DEPOSIT,

No. 3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

CAPITAL STOCK £500,000.

THIS Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other, the ordinary transactions of LIFE ASSURANCE.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public, and the rate of Interest realized.

The plan of the Bank of Deposit differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, in the mode of investing Capital. Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests, and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well secured Reversions, a class of securities, which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is Five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with Capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by Two Directors, is given for each Sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and, for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

PETER MORRISON, Managing Director.
